i>jth February TROUBLES OF THE KEEPER AT WISBEACH S P Dom 262 42

zist February COURT NEV\S Sidney Papers, n 16,17,18

24/£ February SIR THOMAS BASKERVILLE'S SOLDIERS Salisbury Papers, \n 69

February THE LORD MAYOR REBUKED A P C > xxvi 520

March COURT NEWS Sidney Paper > n 24

March A NOTABLE STRATAGEM AT THE CAPTURE OF AMIENS Salisbury Paper > \n , 88 , Calendar of State Papers Venetian, iz 558

loth March THE \VARDE\SHIP OF THE CIRQUE PORTS Sidney Papers, u 27

nth March. THE OFFICE OF LORD PRESIDENT S P Dom , 262 64

The Earl of Huntingdon died on r^ith December, 1595 (p 66)

i2/A March THE LORD TREASURER'S GRIEF £/^«£y Papers, n 27

I4//5 March A WITCH HANGED A.T LANCASTER George More, 4 Trw Discourse concerning the certain possession and dispossession of 7 persons in one family in Lancashire ', etc , 1600 In 1598 Darrell and More were committed to the Clink, where this book was written to confute the Jesuits who declared that the Lancashire exorcisms were frauds perpetrated b} the preachers , though the Jesuits themselves made capital out of one of the possessed women (see p 285) The assizes, according to More, were held on 6th March , Hartley w as probably executed about two days later , he was dead some days before the i6th The law did not condemn a man to deatb for witchcraft but for murder by witchcraft , conjuration of e\il spirits was however a capital offence, see C L' Estrange Ewen, Witch Hunting and Hitch Trials, ^929, and E W Notestem, History of Witchcraft in England front 1558-1718 , my edition of The Trial of the Lancashire Witches m 1612, and authorities therein quoted Lancashire ^ as a hotbed of ^ itchcraft at this time i.6tk March THE PRICE OF BEER A P C , xx\i 543

THE E\RL OF ESSEX'S PATEI*T Sidney Papers, n 30

iqth March A NEW PLAY Hens Diary > i 51, u 183

zoth March FRENCH PIRATES A P C , xxn 561

25^ March SECTARIES TO GO TO CANYDA A P C , xxwi 6

27/£ March A^ EXPLOSION IN DUBLIN *S P Ireland 198 21

28^ March THE POSSESSED PERSOXS IN LANCASHIRE For authorities, see 1 4th March The * madness* and ' exorcism * of the Puritan Malvolio would be highly appreciated in 1600-1 when the pamphlet war, engendered by the efforts of Messrs Darrell and More, was at its hottest Malv olio's * vam bibble-babble " and his fashionable yellow stockings show that he too was suffering from possession by the evil spirit of pride

zyth March ENGLISH PRISONERS IN SPAIN S P Dom , 262 86

3 ist March MENDOZA'S * THEORIQUE AND PRACTISE OF WAR * STC, 17819 , the book is commended at the end by a * Censure " written by Don Franosco Anas de Bobadilla, who is apparently immortalised in Jonson's Every Man tn his Humour (p 309} , Bobadil in the First Quarto of the play appears as Bobadilla.